3. [] and I met with William Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, with whom we discussed some Agency Subcommittee matters (see Memo for Record) and whom we briefed on recent developments regarding the ChiCom nuclear program, ChiCom naval construction, ChiCom fighter production, Soviet ICBM deployment, and Soviet naval activity in the western Atlantic.

Blandford said that he very much hoped Chairman Hebert's plan for handling Agency Subcommittee matters--i.e., intelligence briefings of the full Committee and informal discussions of internal Agency matters with two or three senior Committee members, would prove successful. Blandford warned that if this arrangement does not work out serious problems might arise regarding the Chairmanship and membership of a formal Agency Subcommittee.

5. [] Frank Meyer, Administrative Assistant to Representative Gerald R. Ford (R., Mich.), telephoned saying there was a young man from Mr. Ford's district who wanted to talk to someone at an appropriate level concerning employment prospects. The man's name is [] I told Meyer I would set up an appointment for [] probably mid-morning on Tuesday, 9 February, for [] to see our top personnel recruiting man in our Rosslyn office. Meyer said this would be satisfactory. We are to let Meyer know the name of the individual, the time and place.
